Slave Trafficking Act - Child Prostitution investigation after PBPB requested an FBI investigation.

Once the underage females arrived at the Epstein residence at 358 El Brillo Way, Palm Beach, Florida, they were taken to Epstein's bedroom where they were instructed by Epstein to remove all or most of their clothing and provide him with a massage. In some cases, as the minor provided the massage, Epstein fondled the minor either on their breasts or vagina. Epstein would on occasion introduce a vibrator/massager and used it to rub the minor's vagina. On numerous occasions, Epstein digitally penetrated the minor's vaginas. Epstein engaged in sexual intercourse with at least three underage females. At the conclusion of the sexual activity, the minors were paid cash sums ranging from $200.00 - $1,000.00.

Epstein sometimes provided gifts to the minors for special occasions, such as birthdays. These gifts included bra and panty sets from Victoria's Secret, vibrators, tickets to shows, books, and cash, among other things.

The extent of Epstein's wealth can only be estimated, however he does own two private jets, the largest single family home in Manhattan-New York City, NY, a ranch in New Mexico, a private Island in the U.S. Virgin Islands, as well as his house in Palm Beach, Florida.

Also named as subjects of captioned investigation are [REDACTED], another live-in assistant of Epstein's, Chislane Maxwell, Epstein's supposed socialite girlfriend, and [REDACTED], a model and former assistant to Epstein.

Through the course of the FBI investigation, case agents identified over 30 minor females who provided Jeffrey Epstein with a massage at his Palm Beach residence. Case agents obtained phone records for at least 13 victims for the times they were allegedly at the Epstein residence, through administrative subpoena, along with the phone records for [REDACTED],

[REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. Phone records were obtained for [REDACTED], DOB [REDACTED]; [REDACTED], DOB [REDACTED];

jets. Over the course of the two year period for which this investigation covers, Jeffrey Epstein made 127 trips in and out of the West Palm Beach Airport (PBI), using his two personal aircraft. The two aircraft Epstein owns are a Boeing 727, and a Gulfstream G-1159B. Overall, most of the flights were between West Palm Beach Airport and the New York Metropolitan area, however there were a number of flights to the U.S. Virgin Islands; Paris, France; London, UK; as well as several other U.S. and International destinations. Jeffrey Epstein was on every flight documented on the manifests, with the exception 15 regular flights and 27 repositioning/maintenance/training flights. Of the flights into and out of PBI, [REDACTED] was on 80 flights, [REDACTED] was on 80 flights, Ghislaine Maxwell was on 16 flights, and [REDACTED] was on at least eight flights, although the spelling of her name varies according to whomever wrote it down. Also present on one of the flight manifests was the name of Alan Derschowitz, and a separate manifest with an individual with the name "Barok" who traveled with two body guards.

During a search of Epstein's residence, the investigating Police Department obtained several books of message pad carbon copies. According to the house manager, who was interviewed by PBRA Agents, Epstein required all phone calls to the Palm Beach residence to be documented. There were multiple carbon copy message pads obtained during the search. Of the carbon copy message pads, over 120 messages were from the victims previously mentioned. A good portion of the message pads were date and time stamped by the message taker. Of particular interest on the message pads were calls from notable celebrities and public figures such as Donald Trump, David Copperfield, Sarah - Duchess of York, and Halle Barry, indicating the social status of Jeffrey Epstein.

During the initial investigation there were several trash pulls conducted by the Palm Beach Police Department on the Epstein residence on El Brillo Way in Palm Beach. These trash pulls yielded several pieces of scratch paper, along with Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell stationery with handwritten notes pertaining to the victims. The trash pulls started in April of 2005, and continued through September 2005. Some of the pertinent notes from the trash pulls are: "[REDACTED] on Friday around 2 o'clock", "[REDACTED] cannot come tomorrow at 7 pm b/c of [REDACTED]", and "[REDACTED] 4:30 PM, Tues - [REDACTED] @ 9 PM, [REDACTED] 12". Victim [REDACTED] high school transcript was also found in the search of Jeffrey Epstein's residence.

Western Union was sent an administrative subpoena for all transactions concerning Jeffrey Epstein. There were three Western Union transactions between Epstein and the victims. The first one was in December, 2004 from Jeffrey Epstein to [REDACTED] for $200.00. The second and third transactions were both from Jeffrey Epstein to [REDACTED], one for $350.00 and one for $200.00. [REDACTED] later confirmed that she received a Western Union Transfer from Epstein when she was on vacation in Cancun, MX and San Diego, CA. According to the Western Union receipts, [REDACTED] received her money in Cancun, MX and San Diego, CA.

Writer completed Microsoft Excel chronological charts to show the call activity in relation to the message pad carbon copies, trash pulls, Western Union transactions, and the travel of Jeffrey Epstein and associates. One chart was completed for each of the 13 victims whose phone records were obtained by PBRA.

[REDACTED]

The PBRA obtained toll records for [REDACTED] from 12/15/2003 through 10/03/2005. During that time period, [REDACTED] made over 21,360 calls. Of the 21,360 total calls made, 962 were between other victims and subjects of captioned investigation. [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] three times. [REDACTED] first contacted [REDACTED] on 07/15/2004, when [REDACTED] was 17-years-old. Based on the flight manifests, most of the calls between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were placed at a time when Epstein was in the Palm Beach area. There is a high concentration of calls between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in the two days prior to Epstein's arrival at the PBIA. There are also several instances of phone calls which occur one or two days after Epstein departed the Palm Beach area. The average call time between [REDACTED] and the subjects was 1.25 minutes, with a longest call of five minutes.

There were five different pieces of paper found in Epstein's trash with handwritten notes pertaining to "[REDACTED]". "[REDACTED]" high school transcript was also found at Epstein's residence. Of the five pieces of paper found in Epstein's trash, the two most pertinent contained a sketch with a handwritten notation "Drawn by [REDACTED]", the second contained the text "[REDACTED] tomorrow or Sunday". The remaining pieces of paper just mentioned "[REDACTED]" name. Since it is impossible to determine when the notes found in the trash were actually written, they are inserted into the spreadsheets on the day the Palm Beach Police Department found them.

not be located). [REDACTED] first contacted [REDACTED] on 03/12/2004 when she was 17-years-old. The average call time between [REDACTED] and the subjects was 1.25 minutes, with a longest call of three minutes.

The next message pad was dated 02/20/2005 at 1:10 PM from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] with the text "Left her cell # [REDACTED]". The next pad was dated 03/20/2005 from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] with the text "Left her cell # [REDACTED]". The final two message pads occur on 05/30/2005 and 06/02/2005 at 6:15 PM and 12:35 PM respectively. Both pads are from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] with the first pad's text of "Please call" and no text on the second.

There were also five pieces of paper found in the Epstein residence trash which pertain to [REDACTED]. The first three separate pieces of paper were all found on 04/08/2005, two on Jeffrey E. Epstein stationery, and one on Ghislaine Maxwell stationery. The text for the first (Epstein stationery) is "[REDACTED] with [REDACTED] on Saturday at 10:30", the second (also Epstein stationery) is "[REDACTED] on Saturday with [REDACTED] at 10:30", and the third (Maxwell stationery) "[Friday] [REDACTED] tomorrow or Sun. [REDACTED] - 11 Am". Another piece of paper was found in Epstein's trash on 04/15/2007 with multiple names and times, "[REDACTED]" appears next to "Shas Thur + Mon". The final piece of paper was pulled from Epstein's trash on 09/23/2005 and was a two sided notepad page with multiple girls' names and times, some of which were crossed out. "[REDACTED]" appeared next to "[REDACTED]".

[REDACTED] was added as a victim later in the investigation, mainly due to her cell phone records being unavailable. PBRA was able to obtain the long distance records from [REDACTED] house, which show all of the calls to [REDACTED] New York cell phone. [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] 21 times from 01/13/2005 through 10/02/2005, during which time [REDACTED] was 17-years-old. he departed. The average call length between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] was 1.31 minutes, with a longest call of three minutes.

There were nine messages pertaining to [REDACTED] found at the Epstein residence (Since there are two [REDACTED] named as victims, writer only attributed messages to [REDACTED] if there was an accompanying phone number or if the last name was written on the message). Seven of the messages were simply either that [REDACTED] "telephoned", "would like to speak with you", or to "call her back (as soon as possible)". The remaining two message pads, taken on 01/29/2005 and an unknown date state: "I have a female for him" and "She has a female friend for you. Please call back as soon as possible" respectively.

Conclusion

The telephone analysis conducted for captioned case yielded the pattern of [REDACTED] calling one or more of the victims one to three days before Jeffrey Epstein was set to arrive in Palm Beach, as well as during his stay. Call activity between [REDACTED] and the victims significantly decreased or did not occur during the times when Epstein was known to not be in the Palm Beach area. Most of the victims interviewed by investigating Agents stated they were brought to Epstein's El Brillo Way house in Palm Beach by a friend and were introduced to a female they later identified as [REDACTED]. The victims further stated they gave their phone numbers to either [REDACTED] or Epstein himself at the conclusion of the massage/sexual activity.

Another pattern which can be ascertained from the telephone analysis is [REDACTED] calling [REDACTED] the day before or day of Epstein's arrival in Palm Beach. According to interviews of the victims, [REDACTED] directly brought eight victims to Epstein. Of the eight victims [REDACTED] introduced to Epstein, ten more victims were brought to Epstein through the original eight. [REDACTED] has advised local investigators that she was like "Heidi Fleiss", arranging victims for Epstein. Thus, [REDACTED] could have been calling [REDACTED] in order to line up appointments for Epstein.

[REDACTED] made a total of 418 calls and 15 text messages from her cell phone to the victims. The three numbers belonging to the Epstein residence combined for a total of 105 calls to the victims. Of note, the calls from the Epstein residence were calculated from the four victim's cell phone records which show incoming calls, thus there may have been more calls from the Epstein residence to the victims. [REDACTED] made a total of 46 calls, and [REDACTED] made seven calls to the victims.

In October 2007 a non-prosecution agreement was signed by the U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Florida and Jeffrey Epstein's attorneys. As part of the agreement, Epstein will plead guilty to one count of solicitation of prostitution. Epstein will have to serve 18 months in state prison, one year supervised release, and lifetime registration as a convicted sex offender. Epstein is expected to appear in court in late December 2007.
